Could You Be Sued?

Wealth. Lawsuits. It's easy to assume a relationship between the two. Unfortunately, that assumption is a common error made by most people. Because anyone can be sued, regardless of income level, for just about any reason. And lawsuits can result in settlements amounting to six and seven figures. If you're not covered by Travelers Personal Liability Umbrella of Security (PLUS) policy, you are risking everything – your car, home, the lifestyle to which you and your family are accustomed, even your future income, if you are involved in a lawsuit.

Will Your Regular Insurance Policies Be Enough?

Typical auto and homeowners insurance liability limits are not adequate to cover the large court judgments being awarded these days. In addition, even though your basic policies normally cover defense costs, once the policy limits have been paid, the insurance company may no longer have an obligation to pay for the rest of your defense. So if you're involved in a large lawsuit, not only might the amount of your insurance be inadequate to pay the entire judgment, but you could be responsible for the cost of your own defense.

Have You Covered Every Possibility?

There are also some types of losses that the normal auto and homeowners policies are not intended to cover. PLUS picks up these gaps in your insurance policies. Best of all, this vital insurance protection is relatively inexpensive.

Enjoy Peace Of Mind

The PLUS policy provides an “umbrella” of protection over your other personal liability policies. If you're involved in a lawsuit while covered by our PLUS policy, you can enjoy the security of an additional one to five million dollars of liability protection. If you're interested in learning more about PLUS, contact your Travelers Independent Agent.

No other insurance company can offer you what Travelers does. The combination of high quality products, superior customer service, and broad resources is unmatched by other insurance companies. While those firms may come and go, our proven track record of protecting customers and treating them with respect and fairness has endured for more than 130 years, attracting people like you who value long term reliability in their insurance company.

In 1864, we were the first company in the nation to insure against accidents and, in 1897, the first to issue an automobile insurance policy. In 1999, we were the first insurer to offer consumers protection against identity fraud. Today, we're still first in choice, service, convenience and reputation. Let Travelers help you get more of what you need now and for your financial future.
